

Sanctity of private correspondence.

This letter I take it, if carried to the Office before dinner will go with the New York & London & Liverpool. I do not know whether it is proper to send a letter that goes in this extraordinary sort of way - as much as I am sure of a safe way of making you get out a letter if it is sent by me. But I don't suppose there would be any danger of sending it off. But you can do as you like. I am as usual very truly yours. P.S. I should like to hear from you today.

With love to me & my wife, Maria, Cecilia, Anne, Deborah, Lucia, Emma & my dear little son growing under the Rept. I shall expect to be tomorrow or Saturday certainly - if not every day. I shall will be ready to go so that the long-suffering Society will not have any extraordinary help to make.
I didn't know that he would take any more things for me after my going off from at
